

Michael Johnson

Mandating that we have to go to EV is not doable for those of us who live below the poverty line. Hopefully the current governor is gone before then and this can be repealed.