

Clayton Braun

Requiring the sale of only electric vehicles by 2035 is unrealistic, burdensome, and a restriction on personal Freedoms of the citizenry of this state. Additionally, the goal is unnecessary.

Delete this unbelievably dumb idea.