

Anonymous Anonymous

So tired of the out of touch democrats thinking they get to decide what's best for us. That is not your job. We do not work for you, you work for us. Your electric vehicles are far too expensive for regular people, and the "cheaper" ones you all love to talk about for us low class citizens aren't big enough for our daily lives especially if you have a family. Find another solution or you'll find yourselves out of a job.