

Karen Welinski

Washington state does not have the infrastructure to support all electric cars. Before we put mandates in place we need to make sure our power grid can handle electric. I do not want to have power outages due to not enough power to handle the electric cars. Please reconsider!