

Andrew Austin

The animal rendering plant smells across Tacoma a public health disgrace and scar on our community. Also the burning plastic smells are very bad. Please force these problematic businesses in the Port of Tacoma to clean up their act.