

Laura Gibbons

Thank you for doing such a thorough examination of this issue. In general I think your methodology is excellent. However I find it hard to believe the area around SEATAC airport is not highlighted in your draft map. Is that because of a lack of monitoring or because you don't consider ultrafine particles or ?? Nearby areas have measurements that are scientifically tied to aircraft emissions (see, for example, the Beacon Hill studies).