

Birgit Grimlund

Please use whatever authority you have to both provide all communities in Washington with air quality data. But even more important, support efforts to make public transportation easier, support using renewable energy sources less for expensive for individual (State subsidies) and support our forest service to manage forests in ways to reduce wildfire impact.