

Hal Beecher

I understand that Seattle's International District and adjacent areas of Seattle are particularly adversely affected by air quality as a result of severe congestion and exhaust emissions on I-5 near Convention Center and I-90 junction, and to what extent Sea-Tac and Boeing Field may also contribute to poor air quality I can only guess, but these also could be monitored and measures to mitigate should be investigated.