

Ruth Sawyer

It doesn't make sense for Ecology to come up with it's own criteria when we already have the HEAL Act definition of "overburdened communities."

I recommend that Ecology build on existing community engagement efforts across programs and agencies and align its Section 3 implementation with community engagement principles and proposals from the Healthy Environment for All ("HEAL") Act.