

Jean M. Avery

It's another day indoors due to unhealthy air quality in Vancouver. Sadly, our evergreen state is burning, and air pollution is negatively affecting quality of life in our area. (See the dark purple zones on the health disparities map.) Please use your authority to improve air quality. Thank you.