

john doherty

What information should Ecology provide in its annual report?

reporting should be frequent - twice a year as a minimum and should include details regarding to whom the funds were provided, what the funds were used for, and metrics over time of the results from the spent funds.

How should Ecology determine which projects are required to report their GHG emissions reductions?

a manageable asset baseline should be set with reference to organization size and any organization falling above that baseline should be required to report GHG emission reductions