

Jim Thornton

Ecology should require an alternatives analysis that considers non-pollution options such as generators that run on hydrogen or battery storage instead of diesel generators. Ecology should also prepare a programmatic EIS for emergency generators that considers life-cycle emissions.