

Ashley Sinner

I am writing in opposition to the draft data center general order. I believe this proposal is to the detriment of the quality of life of our residents. I appreciate the potential economic benefits data centers could bring but it is my view that no project should be entered into that would diminish the quality of life of the people already living here.