

Linda Avis Scott

Considering the increase in polluting emissions being proposed, please deny this permit and require use of battery powered generators.

Reducing the impacts of increased emissions on nearby neighborhoods is much more important than allowing a profit making entity to use a dirty technology when less environmentally impactful technologies are available.