

Paul Birkeland

You definitely need to hold a public hearing on this. Data centers are eating our power, polluting our air, and wrecking the climate. Not to mention corrupting the infosphere. Data center operation is a much bigger deal than it used to be. We all see it now, and we want some say in things like this.

Yeah, do the public hearing.