

Jesse French

I urge the Dept of Ecology to deny the application for diesel generators, because there are cleaner alternatives available (e.g. battery backup) that do not conflict with Washington state's climate commitments and don't contribute to pollution in vulnerable communities.

Thank you!