

Darlene Schanfald

RE: Sabey Data Center

Mr. Finley:

I am concerned about particulate emissions, of any size. They will have consequential human health, wildlife and environmental impacts. Emissions do not stay local; they circulate and, depending on the weather, drift in different directions and distances. In-depth analysis is needed on these likelihoods prior to approving permits. And those analysis should first be shared publicly for public input, prior to permitting.

Thank you,