

Brynn Armbruster

I'm a community member who is concerned about data centers and their emissions. Adding additional diesel generators onsite would lead to more air pollution that could hurt my community. I would like there to be a public hearing before this application is approved. Consider this public comment as an official request to the Department of Ecology to host a public hearing.