

Susan Lawless

You must stop the new diesel generators in Quincy. They will increase dangerous air pollution like NOx and toxic diesel exhaust. You need to require cleaner backup power--not more diesel.

Evaluate the cumulative effects of the diesel--instead of the piecemeal permit approach of approval.

Public health must be seriously considered in all your decisions, as well as environmental injustice.

Human lives are at stake.