

Daniel Haas

This project puts Washington residents and fragile ecosystems at risk for no discernable benefit. These generators will devalue land and destroy habitat. Their purpose is to provide power to a data center that exists only to empower the already powerful and rob hard working people everywhere of their livelihoods. This cannot be allowed.