

Maddy Anonymous

This project should not be approved, as it will add to the already disproportionate burden of pollution on Quincy. There are safer, cleaner, more renewable sources of backup energy that should be used instead of diesel generators! This project goes against the Washington Climate Commitment Act and perpetuates climate injustice against Quincy