

Robert Wells

To Department of Ecology:

Because of the troubling amount of pollution that is emitted by the data center into the environment, I believe more solutions should be investigated to diminish the damage to the environment and the harm to individuals living there.