

Jessica Rehms

As a citizen of Wenatchee, I oppose the approval of any additional data center construction in our area without the state conducting full public hearings. I have concerns regarding the environmental and health impacts this and other data center construction have on our region.