

Kathryn Reith

We are facing a global climate crisis. This data center will not only affect air quality in our state, it will contribute massive amounts of Carbon emissions that will contribute to climate change. The use of water to cool the center will take critically needed water away from farms. Stop the data center!