

Justas Vilgalys

We should ban the sale and use of any products containing PFAS in Washington state. We should fund technologies that will remove PFAS from water ways and the environment. And require industries that released them to compensate Washington for this work.