

Spokane Regional Health

In reviewing the available information on phthalates and their association with conveyor belts and belt dust, I am wondering about the inadvertent contamination this dust can cause. In my youth I worked at UPS and briefly with US Postal Service and the conveyor belt dust/particulates are everywhere and it coats packaging. Considering parcel delivery and the inadvertent spread of conveyor belt dust seems to be something we might want to investigate.