

Kate Thorson

We do not do enough to regulate harmful chemicals in products that impact human and environmental health. I fully support all action to regulate and reduce or remove these chemicals in order protect our communities.