

Den Mark Wichar

Dear Washington State Department of Ecology,

I support all proposed restrictions and reporting requirements in the proposed Safer Products for Washington rule.

It is critical to end use of dangerous chemicals in products that are building up in people, food, wildlife, and water.

There are safer solutions that can be used in place of hazardous chemicals, and these rules are critically important for moving companies in the right direction.