

John Worthington

Please Pay for disposal by creating a nautical mile tax on China/Asia firefighting products.

An additional nautical mile tax should be applied to American ingredients sent to China/Asia to make said firefighting products.

In other words double down on world economy taxes and make those sneaky corporate greeds pay to pollute for once.

John Worthington