

Anonymous Anonymous

Washington State should also include the regulation and required removal of PFAS in the form of artificial fragrances in the form of personal, cosmetic, cleaning, household, and other products used in cars, public transportation, homes, hospitals, schools, day care facilities, skilled nursing home and assisted living, etc. The science is available on why artificial fragrances should be regulated and banned.