

Pamela Gross

My family and I have strong concerns and objections to transporting millions of gallons of tainted nuclear liquid wastes – especially when transporting treated waste as a solid is a readily available, and much safer, alternative that would still allow disposal of waste offsite where it will not threaten ground or surface waters.

Transport the waste as a solid.

Thank you.