

Linda Devlaeminck

I support removing waste from Hanford for disposal offsite where there is no risk to contaminate groundwater or a river. I live in Vancouver. I expect my Washington State agencies and Governor to use every power they have to ensure that liquid radioactive wastes are not shipped through downtown Spokane when there is a far safer alternative to treat and solidify Hanford's tank wastes before they are shipped for disposal. I want an EIS before the agencies adopt this program.