

William Corr

Liquid nuclear waste should not be shipped. The danger of accidental leakage is too great with liquid shipping by truck or rail. Liquid waste needs to be solidified before shipping to a safe location.