

Hallie Appel

I am surprised and horrified that it has taken until now to achieve an Agreement to clean up millions of gallons of radioactive and chemical waste from leaking tanks at Hanford. However I am relieved and pleased that there will now be deadlines for their safe and effective cleanup, and hope to learn soon that that has taken place.