

Querido Galdo

There should be 'cradle to grave' assessment and mitigation of GHG emissions. They should be assessed onsite, as well as upstream and downstream--from the point of extraction, through distribution, all the way to use by the consumer.