

Don Steinke

And we keep on hearing people say, well, look at Texas, they're far worse than Washington. Look at China. Okay. India, but we can't do anything about Texas. We can't do anything about China and India. We can do something about about (inaudible) the state of Washington. And if the state of Washington with all the Hydro cannot, cannot reduce their emissions as rapidly as possible and no one can and we're doomed. We need to protect our children's future, not make excuses for the business associations.

And so, as Angela Merkel said in 1996, we need to--the rest of the world needs to know that we are doing our part. And we, and we need to do our part and That's the only way we'll get other people to do theirs. The people in China said, why should we do, why should we cut our, our essential emissions when the people in America and Washington state are continuing with their luxury emissions, so we need to go to net zero or beyond as...