

Kimberly Sims

Dear Rulemaking Lead Fran Sant,

Now is the time to make environmental justice a part of all new rules for evaluating fossil fuels projects. At the top of the list needs to be the recognition of tribal treaty rights. For too long, industry has ignored and downplayed the harm it has wreaked on both marginalized communities and the environment. Its insatiable greed in pursuit of maximum profit has to end before it destroys us all.

Thank you for your consideration.