

Port of Longview

Webinar Poll Response - The intention appears to be aimed at reducing GHG w/in Washington State but it seems the rule has been crafted already based on last months presentation and this months. Maybe I am misunderstanding where the parameters of review are coming from and what they are based on but they seem to be developed already which seems counter to traditional rule making policy? Maybe I need further clarification on this process?