

Carol Sword

No net pens should be approved that don't include strategies for remediation of the waste that is generated by the penned fish. Why should the rest of us deal with waste generated by private companies ?

Please remember who you work for.

Thank you.