

Ann Soule

As a member of the Clallam County Marine Resources Committee I have become aware of the serious issue of imminent conflicts between development and nearshore habitat as sea level rises. I am submitting this comment as an individual at this time simply to endorse the proposed strengthening of state policy and subsequent improvements to local policy and enforcement. Thank you.