

Kimberly Danke

As a Washington resident who lives directly on the shores of Puget Sound, I am very concerned about the impact unpermitted armoring of shoreline areas has on both salmon and orca habitat as well as on public access. I strongly encourage the state to develop comprehensive enforcement and compliance measures that include but are not limited to significant punitive fines for unpermitted docks, armoring, or bulkheads, orders for removal and remediation, and even contractor loss of license. Thank you.