

Federal Way Public Schools # 210 (Mike Benzien)

Concerning battery storage- While the idea is great, the application and practicality combined with safety and reliability are starting to show weak areas. The legislators need to know how toxic batteries fires are and the difficulty in extinguishing them. Puyallup School District recently had storage batteries catch fire and the new school will need to be completely remediated before it can be occupied again. This burden is now on the tax payers.