
Massachusetts - Atlantic Puffin

Dear Director Sixkiller,

Thank you for starting to plan for sea level rise in these Shoreline rules. Today they still let new & rebuilt structures sit too close to high-tide lines. As the sea rises, lands will flood more and more, putting homes at risk and pushing owners to build hard seawalls that wipe out salmon beaches. Please keep new building back from the water. Protecting people, salmon, environments, and communities go together!

-Sara Hinds, Ireland

SEATTLE WA 980
14 SEP 2026 PM 3 L

Director Casey Sixkiller
WA Dept. of Ecology
ATT: Shoreline Management Act Rulemaking
P.O Box 47600
Olympia, WA
98504-7600

card designed by MNJOHN MNJOHN.COM