
Washington - Sockeye Salmon

Dear Director Sidkiller,

Thank you for starting to plan for sea level rise. Homeowners, new + rebuilt structures are too close to today's high tide line. As sea level rises, the land will continue to flood, putting homes at risk + wiping out salmon beaches with hard seawalls in response. Protecting salmon + people go together — please keep new building back from the water.

Thank You!

Nia Martin, Bellingham, WA

SEATTLE WA 980
14 SEP 2026 PM 3 L

Thinking of You
STATION
SASSAFRAS

Director Casey Sidkiller
WA Dept. of Ecology
Attn: Shoreline Management
Act Rulemaking
P.O. Box 47600
Olympia, WA
98504-7600

MNJOHN
MNJOHN.COM 7600