Stephen Zettel

I support the proposed rule-making and urge the legislature to mandate shore bird protections and to utilize as much as possible natural mitigation solutions such as planting native species to preserve shoreline and provide resiliency against sea level rise, flooding and erosion.