Jacob Seegers

I do not support any expansion la to buffers or other measures that decrease developable property. Current standards are already overly burdensome, reduce affordability and infringe on property rights.