Stephen Zettel

I strongly support proposed rule making -- The Shoreline Management Act -- which requires local governments to prepare Shoreline Master Programs (SMP) for managing shoreline use. Shoreline jurisdiction extends 200 feet inland from marine, large river, and large lake shorelines. Washington's landmark Climate Planning Law will require sweeping changes to future SMPs. We need to incorporate Climate Planning and shoreline resiliency into all master programs going forward.