Stacy Miller

We cannot let these facilities into our residential areas. There must be restrictions around schools, homes, and hospitals regardless of any scope! The volume of emergencies and amount of fires, evacuations, harm to our environment, waterways, air, animals, and more is proof enough that these do not belong around wildlife, waterways, or people! Keep them out and limited to industrial areas if they must exist at all.