

Darlani Asuega

Unless this actively regenerates or supports the landscape we do not want it . The red flags of having this near our families out weighs the finances that fund it. Auburn doesn't need or want more on its shoulders . Out of all of WA you have so many other places to place a lithium storage facility where fires and water run off don't harm surrounding neighbors .