Carrie Arrington

Absolutely not!!! The entire Chehalis River basin area is a critical and essential region for sustainable agriculture (you know, FOOD SOURCE).
ANY potentially damaging "development" must be dramatically slowed down.
ABSOLUTELY nobody wants this garbage anywhere near this precious region.